

Corporate Coffee Systems LLC Acquires Three New York Coffee Service Firms

Posted: November 3rd, 2010 12:05 PM GMT-05:00

Corporate Coffee Systems LLC (CCS), based in Westbury, N.Y. announced the acquisition of three coffee service companies.

CCS acquired the assets of King Coffee Services Inc., of Bronx, N.Y. from owner Terry Adelstein, Bross Food Enterprises Inc., of Bronx N.Y. from owners Cathe and Bob Bross, and Bevex Beverages of Manhattan, N.Y. from owner Howard Kirshenberg. In total, these acquisitions represent more than 750 new customers. Several key personnel from these independent companies will remain on board with CCS.

"As a premier coffee and beverage provider for 25 years, we are seeking to strategically expand our loyal customer base and further strengthen our business in the important Metro New York market," said David Henchel, president and CEO of CCS in a prepared statement. "In addition, these synergistic acquisitions provide the opportunity to tap into the knowledge and experience of these high-quality operators, fueling internal growth. We look forward to continued success with our new customers and team members."

Financial terms of the acquisitions were not disclosed.
